Important News

PDO aims to maintain a safe and healthy working environment by correcting situations that caused or could likely cause injury or damage. When an incident occurs, it is important to report the occurrence so corrective actions could be taken to make sure that a similar or more serious incidents do not re-occur. An incident is defined as "an unplanned and undesired event or chain of events that have, or could have, resulted in injury or illness, damage to assets, environment, company reputation, and/or consequential business loss". There are different types of reportable incidents:

What You Need to Know

Unsafe acts/conditions including Life-Saving Rule violations.

- Near misses
- Incidents with consequences

Normally, staff are good in reporting incidents with consequences. However, reporting near miss incidents is as important as reporting incidents with consequences. Near miss incidents are gifts that enable us to learn and rectify the situation before it escalates to injuries or damages.
